African & African American Studies
Major Tracking Form
Americas Focus

Student: ___________________________              Advisor: ____________________________
Date of Matriculation: ________________            Expected Graduation: _________________
Date AAAS Major Declared: ___________            Current Date: ________________________

The major requires ten courses, eight of which must be at the level of 200 or above.

Required courses (title/semester completed)
1. AAAS 102 _________________________________________________________________
2. AAAS 103 _________________________________________________________________
3. AAAS 499S ________________________________________________________________

Three courses focusing on the Americas, with at least one in each of the following areas (title/semester completed)
1. Arts or Literature_____________________________________________________________
2. History ____________________________________________________________________
3. Social, Religious, Economic, or Political Institutions/Processes_________________________

Four additional AAAS courses (title/semester completed)
1. __________________________________________________________________________
2. __________________________________________________________________________
3. __________________________________________________________________________
4. __________________________________________________________________________

Optional: Distinction Program Sequence
AAAS 495 _______________________  AAAS 496 __________________________